Nine Die In South Texas Storm; Damage Mounts To $1 Billion

RIO GRANDE CITY, Tex. (AP) — The greatest mass of floodwaters in three decades thundred down the Rio Grande today, imperiling the International Bridge at this border town and promising new hardships for the lower Rio Grande Valley 40 miles down stream.

Torrential rains—up to a staggering 30 inches—also sent crests rolling down scores of other South Texas rivers and streams as Hurricane Beulah, the cause of it all, finally blew herself out against the mountains of northern Mexico. Some one million persons remained isolated by high water in a 40,000 square-mile area in the wedge of South Texas. The death toll from the 14-day-old hurricane stood at 36—while damage estimated were put at $1 billion. Nine died in Texas.

A deputy sheriff at Rio Grande City said Saturday, "It's going to go" when asked about the International Bridge there. He said the river's floodwaters covered about a fourth of the town shortly after midnight. "It looks like the river's coming into the downtown area," he added. Numerous streams in the disaster area continued to spill from their banks today and heavy rains persisted, although they were tapering off. Beulah slammed into the Texas coast at Brownsville early Wednesday. The Rio Grande was 20 feet above flood stage and a mile wide, here, 110 miles from the Gulf of Mexico. W. E. Walker, principal engineer for the International Boundary and Water Commission, said Rio Grande floodwaters had eaten away the abutments of the bridge linking Rio Grande City and Camargo, Mexico.

"We expect it (the main part of the bridge) to go anytime," he said late Friday. "This is the highest discharge since 1938," he said. "It's a very large flood. It's very serious." South Texas was a world gone made with water. Attempts at cleaning up the soggy mess were started at the few points where waters receded. A hand-lettered sign on the wall of the Raymondville Hospital told this story:

"Our syringes and medicines are sterile. Our hearts and hands are clean. Our smiles are real. Only our floor is wet and a few guys with guts are keeping us going." A volunteer team of men and boys—some from the high school football team—kept floodwaters to a low level in the hospital with pumps, buckets and sandbags. Chief Physician Dr. Charles Spence said the volunteers

"pitched in and kept some women from having to have their babies out in that mud and filth." White-clad nurses were barefoot. Doctors wore high boots. Th latest death was that of Jean Blackwell of Kingsville, who apparently drowned when a pickup truck was swamped near Alice. Two other persons died early Friday when a car plunged into a flooded creek in San Antonio. Virtually all roads south of San Antonio remained blocked today although a few became passable by heavy high-wheeled vehicles. Thousands of refugees who fled inland to escape the winds and tides of Beulah found themselves faced with greater danger Thursday and Friday from the raging floodwaters, from massive rains and from 95 tornadoes that spun off the monstrous storm. Many had to be re-evacuated.

Ford Talks Stalled

DETROIT (AP) — The strike by the United Auto Workers Union against Ford Motor Co. in its 18th day, is no nearer a settlement now than when it began.

That is the verdict from both sides of the bargaining table as contract talks stand in recess this weekend.

Not one line of a new contract had been written when 160,000 UAW members walked off their jobs at Ford plants Sept. 6. Not one has been written since.

Money issues, the big problems, weren't discussed in five hours of meetings Friday. Negotiations are set to resume at 10 a.m. Monday, but each side says very little "negotiating" has been going on.

The money issues aren't on Monday's agenda.

Reuther Sits In

As the strike inched a day closer to fulfilling predictions that it will last at least two months and maybe longer, Ford's top bargainer, Malcolm L. Denise, told newsmen Friday, "we stand where we stood when the strike began."

Walter P. Reuther, the UAW president, joined the union team at the bargaining table in the three-hour afternoon session, setting off talk that the deadlock might be loosening.

Later, though, he explained his visit came because he "felt obligated to come periodically to see if the company is ready to get down to meaningful collective bargaining."

Reuther added, "Ford indicated it wasn't."

Denise, asked if the company was ready to make a new contract offer on the money issues, said, "In the course of our discussion we had nothing new to offer him."

Offer Rejected

The company, in its only offer, has called for pay increases of 13 cents an hour for all its 2.8 per cent in each of the last two years of a proposed three-year agreement.

The UAW rejected this as inadequate.

Reuther called the strike "a great economic waste which benefits no one," but, in response to a question, he said it will continue "as long as it takes the Ford Motor Co. to understand that in a free society workers are going to find a way to get their equity."

Until Thanksgiving? "I hope not," Reuther said. "But if that's how long it takes, that's how long it will last."

For the duration of the strike, the 160,000 UAW members formerly employed at Ford, which says the average paycheck was $155 a week, will draw from the union benefits payments of $20 to the single worker, $25 to the married worker, $30 to the worker with a spouse and children.

Union Meets Oct. 8

A special union convention is set for Oct. 8 to act on the UAW International Executive Board that union dues of nonstriking members be raised from $5 monthly to $30 monthly to bolster the fund from which the benefits are paid.

The fund, which totaled $67 million when the Ford strike began, is drawn down by about $4 million weekly because of the benefit payments. The dues increase would replenish it by about $7 million per week.

Policy Critics Claim War Price Too Great

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's assertion that the fight to save South Vietnam from communism is worth the price despite "passionate voices" of protest is challenged by policy critics.

Johnson told the heads of about 300 fraternal organizations Friday that the big question is whether the war is worth the price. "I say it is," he declared.

"In every war we have fought there have been passionate voices crying that the engagement was unwise, that what we might accomplish was not worth the price we would have to pay," he said.

This was true, he said, when the Axis powers nibbled at Europe in the 1930s, when communism threatened Greece and Turkey in 1947, when the Reds blockaded Berlin in 1948, when South Korea was invaded in 1950 and in the Cuban missile crisis in 1962.

Church Retorts

"These voices are heard now," he said, "as Communist power threatens the life of South Vietnam."

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, one of the dissenters against whom Johnson's shafts appeared aimed, said he wishes the South Vietnamese "shared the President's estimate of the importance of the war in their country."

"Then we wouldn't have to do the fighting for them, while they stay behind the lines and engage in pacification efforts among their own people," Church said.

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., a Foreign Relations Committee member who has called for more vigorous efforts to negotiate a peace, said in a separate interview Johnson failed to state the issue between him and his critics.

What Are Options?

"We are in the war and the question is, what are the options open to us?" Case asked. He said the President's remarks were not the answer to the question of what steps the United States can take to resolve the conflict.

A sharp Vietnam debate, with two Republicans criticizing the administration on the ground it has not brought about greater efforts by the South Vietnamese government in the war, developed in the Senate shortly after the President commented.

Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., said the United States should refuse to "send one more soldier or one more Marine to fight and to die in South Vietnam until that government begins to stand up to its responsibilities."

And Case renewed his stand that the administration should get the South Vietnamese government to make improvements to rally the all-out support of its army and its people.

Cliffs Shaft Is Closing Dec. 23

ISHPEMING (AP) — What is reputed to be the oldest operating iron mine on the Marquette Range will close down Dec. 23, the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co. announced today.

One reserves at the Cliffs Shaft Mine near Ishpeming have been practically exhausted, the company said, and this, coupled with a declining market for its grade of ore, resulted in the decision to suspend operations.

Cleveland-Cliffs said the mine's 125 hourly employees and 16 salaried workers will be transferred to other Cliffs operations.

Since it was opened in 1887, the Cliffs Shaft has shipped more than 26 million tons of hard red hematite lumped and crushed ore. A record 748,000 tons was shipped in 1962, but during the last few years shipments averaged about 250,000 tons, with a sharp decline this year.

Red Guns Kill 41 Marines In 11-Day Blasting

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. pilots reported touching off explosions and fires in North Vietnamese gun positions Friday as U.S. Marine casualties grew to 41 dead and 541 wounded for 11 days of heavy blasting back and forth across the border.

Communist barrages killed six Americans and wounded 72 near the Marine outpost of Con Thien Friday in what appears to have become a contest across South Vietnam's northern frontier to see who can inflict the most casualties.

Another possibility was that the Reds hoped to clear the way for a thrust by ground troops.

Twin-engine B57 medium bombers and supersonic F4 Phantom fighter-bombers joined eight-engine B52s in dumping tons of bombs on the hidden red gun positions.

In 71 raids on the demilitarized zone area since mid-August, the B52s have dropped perhaps more than 10 million pounds of explosives. Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the U.S. commander in Vietnam, has called the concentration of conventional firepower in the area the heaviest in the history of warfare.

Offshore U.S. Navy destroyers also have contributed to efforts to take the Communist pressure off the Marines guarding the northern frontier.

The B57 and F4 pilot reported six secondary explosions and five fires even before the high-altitude B52s started their saturation bombing raids.

Technicians Strike ABC

New Recreation Area Dedicated By First Lady

NEW YORK (AP) — Supervisory personnel directed cameras and handled microphones at American Broadcasting Co. stations today after members of a radio and television technicians union struck and began picketing.

A network spokesman said the walkout, called Friday by the AFL-CIO National Association of Broadcast Employees and Technicians (NABET), was not expected to affect programming, including today's regional football games.

"We're anticipating a complete schedule as would be normal, including the football games which will be handled by staff personnel," a spokesman said. Most weekend offerings have already been taped.

Break NBC Talks

The union also broke off contract talks with the National Broadcasting Co. Friday but called no strike against that network. It gave no explanation.

A recorded announcement from the headquarters of the AFL-CIO American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA) said NABET picket lines would be respected "as of 12 noon today in all time zones."

The technicians' union, which turned down proposed new contracts with both networks last Tuesday, said ABC had rejected new proposals made Thursday. Live programming beginning next week could suffer if performer and announcer members of AFTRA continue to honor picket lines.

Strike At 5:15

At exactly 5:15 p.m. Friday—the time the strike had been called—some 200 NABET members walked off their jobs at ABC headquarters in New York. The union represents some 1,500 employees, about 600 of whom work in New York.

In addition to New York, picket lines were thrown Friday about ABC installations in San Francisco (KGO radio and KGO-TV); at ABC studios in Chicago, and at Annapolis, Md., where ABC will telecast live today the Navy-Penn State football game.

The Columbia Broadcasting

System—the third major network—was not involved in the dispute, its technicians being represented by another union, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

The NABET members include cameramen, audio and video technicians, technical directors, publicists and boom operators.

NABET has asked for an increase in current average wages of $218 a week to $275. The tentative agreement rejected by union members would have boosted salaries to $252 a week over a two-year period.

Also, the union has demanded a 32-hour, four-day week. The companies had offered to retain the present 40-hour week for the first two years of the contract and a reduction to 37½ hours in the third year.

WATERSMEET — "What a magnificent part of the world this is," said Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson in describing the natural beauty of the wilderness of Gogebic County as she dedicated the 18,000-acre Sylvania Recreation Area near here Friday afternoon.

"This is my first visit to this part of our country and I assure you it won't be my last," the First Lady added as she stood on the north shore of Clark Lake and unveiled the plaque commemorating her dedication of the new national recreation area.

Clark Lake is one of 27 lakes on the former L. P. Fisher estate acquired a year ago by the U. S. Forest Service of the Dept. of Agriculture for public access.

In a brief comment, the wife of the President remarked on the difference between the heavily-wooded Sylvania wilderness and the Pederneles River region of Texas.

"It certainly is picturesque," she said.

Beach Crowded

About 1,000 spectators crowded the beach area at Clark Lake to welcome Mrs. Johnson and other visiting dignitaries which included Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, Mrs. Freeman, and Mrs. Hubert Humphrey, wife of the vice president.

The motor caravan arrived at the dedication site from Ironwood at 12:22 p.m., only 22 minutes behind the busy schedule of the First Lady.

The entire ceremony, followed by the usual greetings and handshakes with eager admirers, consumed about an hour before the motorcade moved back to Ironwood where Mrs. Johnson and her party boarded the White House plane to continue their seven-state tour of the Midwest.

Mrs. Johnson deemed the acquisition of the Sylvania Recreation Area necessary and important, pointing out that

Conyers Partner Will Be Named Federal Judge

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has announced he intends to name Damon Keith, a former co-chairman of the Michigan Civil Rights Commission, to be a federal judge.

The President said Friday he will name Keith to sit on the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan in Detroit.

Keith, 45, a prominent Negro attorney, is a partner in the Detroit law firm of Keith, Conyers, Anderson, Brown and Wahls.

Hoffa's Term Now 13 Years

CHICAGO (AP) — Teamsters' Union President James R. Hoffa's prison term has been lengthened from eight to 13 years.

Hoffa was sentenced for a second time Friday to a five-year prison term and a $10,000 fine on charges of taking part in a multimillion-dollar conspiracy to defraud a teamsters' pension fund.

Judge Richard B. Austin, in sentencing the Teamsters' president Friday, declared that the five-year term will be consecutive to an eight-year sentence Hoffa is now serving for jury tampering in Chattanooga, Tenn. Hoffa is imprisoned in Lewisburg, Pa.

Will Menominee Schools Open?

MENOMINEE—Will the Menominee public schools ever open?

That question today seemed to carry more concern in some circles than the question of when the schools will open as the deadlock between the Menominee Education Association and the Board of Education remained solid after three classless weeks.

No future negotiations have been scheduled and the Board of Education has not indicated a change in its previous "firm and final" offer which was rejected by the teachers.

Classes were scheduled to open in the district Tuesday, Sept. 5, but teachers have refused to report to work without a master contract. All efforts to reach a settlement have failed.

Meanwhile, striking teachers have been assured of financial aid from the Michigan and National Education Associations and Upper Peninsula teachers at a regional meeting at Bark River also indicated they will begin contributing monetary support to the Menominee faculty. About 120 teachers missed their first regular payday of the school year Sept. 15.

The only school program in operation is football. The Maroons meet Rhineland in their fourth game of the season today. Coaches have agreed to work without contracts pending a settlement.

Members of the school board had "no comment" when asked this week about the report of an investigating team of the NEA and MEA.

The report charged the Board of Education with compounding the present crisis by in the past evading or putting off millage needs, developing policies and then attempting to administer them, failing to provide leadership and failing to negotiate in good faith with the teachers. It also said the teachers have erred in failing to clearly call to the Board's attention and the citizens the deteriorating school situation so that the current crisis might have been averted.

Arab Refugees Are Subject Of Educational TV

MARQUETTE — Arab refugees, victims of the uneasy peace in the Middle East are the subject of "Bridge on the Jordan" at 8 Monday night on WNMR-TV, Northern Michigan University's educational television station.

"Wildcat Hilites" at 10 Monday night will feature film from Saturday's NMU-Bemidji (Minn.) State football game. Negro poetess Gwendolyn Brooks, winner of the 1950 Pulitzer Prize for Poetry, will be featured on "The Creative Person" at 8 Tuesday.

Senator Thurston Morton (R-Ky.) discusses his newly moderated stand on Vietnam and the war's potential effect on the 1968 elections on "In My Opinion" at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

The "Health Behavior Inventory" being conducted in Marquette-Alger counties will be explained on "Northern Dimensions" at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Appearing on the program will be Dr. Thomas Calhane, principal of John D. Pierce Laboratory School; John Buckbee, director, Alger-Marquette Community Action Board; and Gordon LaBuhn, inventory coordinator.

R. Buckmaster Fuller, creator of the geodesic dome including the 20-story plastic bubbles that houses the U.S. Pavilion at Expo '67, will discuss his philosophy on "Spectrum" at 8 p.m. Thursday.

The eternal triangle, Victorian style, is the plot of "Society" at 9 p.m. Friday on NET Playhouse.

U.P. Metal Shops Seek Subcontracts

By JEAN WORTH

UPCAP's effort to aid small businessmen of the Upper Peninsula through Small Business Development Centers has branched out into an inventory of U. P. metalworking shops that has already resulted in creation of a trade association.

It is first step in a program aimed at bringing a lot more work into Upper Peninsula metalworking shops.

Already the effort has created some surprises.

One of them was the number of metal working shops in the Upper Peninsula.

There are 105 of them! They employ from one to one thousand workers. There is only one U. P. county without a metal working industry—Keweenaw.

Southern Triangle

The biggest number of metal industries is in the industrial triangle formed by Menominee, Delta and Dickinson counties. There are 36 of them in the three counties, 10 in Menominee, 14 in Delta and 12 in Dickinson. Marquette County has 10, and so do Iron and Houghton counties, and Baraga has 12.

There are 46 firms employing one to 5 workers, 22 have 6 to 15; 18 have 16 to 25, 8 have 26 to 50, 3 have 51 to 100, 3 have 101 to 250 and 3 have 251 to 500 and two have 501 to 1,000—Lloyd Mfg. Co. of Menominee and Harnischfeger Corp. of Escanaba.

Rusch's Project

George W. Rusch is coordinator - director of UPCAP's Small Business Development Center and when Congress changed the direction of the SBDCs from a combination of small business loan processing and management assistance to one solely of management assistance, Rusch gave UPCAP's SBDC some new directions.

Its aid to small businessmen had shown the Small Business Development Center the lone and scattered character of the Upper Peninsula's smaller metalworking shops and had indicated their large number. Rusch started an inventory, the first of its kind in the U. P., which identified the shops and listed their equipment and stated their capacity for metalworking.

Detroit Mission

With the inventory in his hand he went to Detroit and spent a week there interviewing meatworking industries which do business with subcontractors for some of their metalwork needs. Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.'s Industrial Development Department headed by Bob Gage, and William Wilson, director of Operation Action-U. P.; the Small Business Administration's Detroit office and the Defense Supply Agency were all very helpful to Rusch in setting up contacts with industries.

There was general interest in the availability of U. P. metalworking service, there was a general lack of knowledge that more than 100 metal shops existed in the U. P., or that they had a broad range of work capacity, and a general indication that there was plenty of work available for subcontracting in the Detroit area. This was documented by Rusch in statements from purchasing agents and industrialists which he brought back to the U. P. and presented to a series of 9 meetings of shop operators across the Peninsula.

Create Association

Rusch suggested that a centralized organization that they could all be a part of could work to solve their problems.

Edge

George Rusch says that wage and overhead differentials between the Upper Peninsula and metropolitan industrial areas give the Upper Peninsula subcontractors some bargaining edge.

He also said that there is a raw material cost advantage, utilizing Algoma Steel Ltd., steel from Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario.

"The wage-overhead differential and close source of steel supply help offset transportation costs for manufacturers in the Upper Peninsula," said Rusch.

of work procurement better than they could individually. Acceptance of the idea followed and then organization of Metal Working and Fabricators Association of the Upper Peninsula (MAFAUP).

Engadine Plans Snowmobile Race February 17-18

ENGADINE — The second annual weekend of snowmobile races for the Engadine area has been scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 17-18, by a race planning committee.

General Chairman Roland Revello said a group of residents from Naubinway, Engadine, Curtis, Gould City and Newberry met Thursday night to set up race committees and make plans for the event.

Racing will be over a three-quarter mile banked oval and also over a 50-mile cross country course.

Committees and chairmen named were: Oval and Cross Country Track layout—Edward Brockman; Advertising—Gil Sablack; Traffic and roads—Don Sulcer; Concessions—Rod Carlson; Parade and Ice Statue competition—Ron Britton; Entertainment—Wallace Belleville and Merle Merriam.

Proceeds from the races will go to the Engadine High School athletic fund, Revello said.

Carpenters Get $1.95 Package

The Carpenters Union Local 1832 of Escanaba has settled its strike with the Michigan Road Builders Association.

Neil Kostitzky, representing the Carpenter's Union said today that an agreement has been reached with the association and that work can start on the Whitefish River bridge job just east of Rapid River on US-2 as soon as the Caspian Construction Co. wishes.

Kostitzky said that the carpenters will receive 45 cents an hour more effective immediately and have settled for a $1.95 per hour package over a three year period.

Carpenters were receiving $4.00 an hour, according to Kostitzky before they started work stoppage on Sept. 11.

Seeking Members

The association is now making its first membership solicitation. With dues in, the association will send a business manager to Detroit, Milwaukee, Chicago and elsewhere to solicit metal work for the U. P. shops.

U. P. Shops can do precision machine work

U. P. shops can do precision machine work, heavy welding fabrication, production welding, and some exotic metals fabrication.

"The biggest problem," said Rusch "is to sell them below on what we've got up here. There are so many of these firms that are looking for firms to give work to."

Marinette Center Draws Students From Peninsula

MARINETTE—The University of Wisconsin - Marinette County Center has shown a 13 per cent increase in fall enrollment over 1966. A total of 357 students have registered for classes, compared with 314 last fall. There are 161 new students, and 139 returning students. Marinette sends the largest contingent of students with 165, followed by Menominee with 87.

Peshigo follows with 30 and Niagara sent a surprising 11. Nine students have come to the Center from Coleman, 6 from Oconto, and 5 each from Wausaukee, Pound, Porterfield, and Daggett.

Crivitz, Lena, and Stephenson have three representatives each on the student body.

There are two students each from Dunbar, Iron Mountain, Pembine, Vulcan and Wallace.

Bruce Crossing Beef Sale Set

On Oct. 9, Bruce Crossing will be the site of the 11th annual sale of feeder cattle produced by the beef breeders in the western end of the Upper Peninsula.

Program Sparker To Hear Yntema

Bay de Noc Community College and the Upper Peninsula Field Service Committee have invited 182 civic leaders of Escanaba, Gladstone, Manistique and Menominee to a workshop at 2:30 p.m. at the Terrace Supper Club, Tuesday, Sept. 26, on "Planning Programs for Community Needs."

Dr. Otto Yntema, director of field services at Western Michigan University, will be the keynote. Dr. Yntema is the former president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers and was the first president of the Adult Education Association.

The workshop was designed by Dr. R.L. Rinehart, President, Bay de Noc Community College. Dr. Claud Bosworth, vice president of Northern Michigan University and John Hicks, community development specialist at NMU, Jim Gooch, regional continuing education director and Ray Gummerson, regional community development agent for Michigan State University. Charles Follo, assistant director of extension services for the University of Michigan, Mike Gendzwil of Lake Superior State College, and Ralph Noble, continuing education director for Michigan Tech.

The workshop is expressly designed to inform and assist the representatives of luncheon, service, civic and social clubs, labor, church youth, and rural groups to achieve more interesting and vital programs.

Charles Harper, director of the U.P. Branch of the Michigan State Library will provide a display of resource material.

Services Held Friday For Harold Greene

Private graveside services were held Friday afternoon at Lakeview Cemetery for Harold R. Greene, 73, a former Escanaba resident and son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James R. Greene.

Rev. Philip Lyon of the First Presbyterian Church officiated at the service.

Mr. Greene was associated with Daybrite Lighting and had been a resident of Cleveland, Ohio for over 30 years, until his retirement seven years ago. Since then he had resided at Los Gatos, Calif.

Immediate survivors include his widow, Florence, a brother, Leland J. Greene of Felton, Calif. and a sister, Mrs. Robert E. Lewis of Milwaukee.

Pledge By Cliffs Puts BSA Camp Drive Over Top

MARQUETTE — The Hiawathaland Council Boy Scouts camp development campaign, boosted by a $30,000 pledge from the Cliffs Foundation maintained by Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co., has gone over the top.

Frank Hoholik of Manistique, general chairman of the drive announced that the $250,000 goal was assured at a recognition dinner for volunteer workers at Whalstrom's Parkway Restaurant, Harve.

The Cliffs Foundation pledge was the largest single gift of the campaign. Mead Corp. and several other firms pledged $10,000.

Partners with Cliffs in the foundation are Bethlehem Steel Co., Ford Motor Co., Inland Steel Co., International Harvester Co., Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp., McLouth Steel Co., Republic Steel Corp., and Wheeling Steel Corp.

The drive, which began six months ago, had exceeded $200,000 before the Cliffs Foundation pledge. Upper Peninsula volunteers were directed by Thomas R. Kuenne, staff associate with Fund-Raising Management, Inc., Milwaukee, a professional fund-raising firm.

Walter Norris, Marquette, president of Hiawathaland Council, presented Hoholik with a plaque commending his efforts as general chairman of the campaign. Trophies for outstanding work at the local levels were presented to Gary Barton, Escanaba; James N. Braddock, Marquette; William Blackstock, Sault Ste. Marie; Glenn Neff, Iron Mountain; Clem Banfield, Dollar Bay, and Leo Lucchesi, Houghton.

The new Boy Scout camp in Alger County was opened this summer for the first time. Funds raised will be used to pay for the land and its development.

Fair Board To Meet In Hancock

Frank Bender, chairman of the Board of Managers of the Upper Peninsula State Fair in Escanaba, says the board will meet at the Superior Bank Building Auditorium in Hancock at 2 p. m., Thursday, Sept. 28.

Any person or group wishing to meet with the board at that time should come to the meeting. This will be the first of a series of meetings which will be held throughout the Upper Peninsula for the purpose of giving people a chance to appear before the Board.

Practical Nurse Class Of 22 Awarded Certificates

Bay de Noc Community College held commencement exercises for 22 graduating practical nurses Friday evening. Lee D. Meyers, executive director of the Upper Peninsula Committee for Area Progress (UPCAP) delivered the commencement address. He told the graduates that they are serving a public need and that society has made it possible for them to receive practical nurse training by providing special government funds to support the program out of public taxes.

Good health is important to the American system of values and society is willing to pay for good health, said Meyers. He described the change in society as a developing recognition of "newer ideas" on equality of opportunity. This means, he said, "that society will take steps to insure that equal opportunities are available to all, even to the point of providing special programs to create new opportunities for those who were unable to take advantage of opportunities which already exist."

"This thinking is the logic behind the war on poverty, civil rights and medicare and legislation for the elderly. This is a new slant on the basic American principle — equality — which has affected the thinking of most of us," Meyers congratulated the graduates on their dedication to serve the needs of others.

The Rev. Dr. Walfred E. Nelson offered the invocation and benediction. Joseph Heirman, chairman of the college board of trustees welcomed the graduates families and friends and Miss Paulette Vanlerberghe presented organ selections and accompanied Mrs. Walter Nordin who sang.

Other graduates are Sharon A. Bastian of Iron Mountain, Charlotte B. Bosko and Sharon L. Jacobson of Crystal Falls, Joan R. Treiber of Norway, Frances M. Fadroski and Evelyn E. Gumbert of Daggett, Lawrence B. Hughes of Stambaugh, Barbara A. Gignac of Menominee, Lyla E. Mattioli of Iron River, David R. Paradise and James C. Schimke of Marinette, Wis., and Elinor M. Floyd and Mary A. Klarich of Manistique.

The training program is presently on a continuing basis through cooperation of the Michigan Employment Security Commission under the Manpower Development and training Act.

Man, Woman Hurt In Crash

A Milwaukee couple was injured in a two-car accident on M-35 at the intersection with County Rd. A-29 in Ford River Township at 8:50 p.m. Friday, State Police reported.

Carl Christianson, 64, was treated at St. Francis Hospital and released, but his wife, Rose, 54, remained a patient this morning. Details on extent of her injuries or condition were not available.

Officers said a car driven by Charles Forsythe, 68, of 408 S. 12th St., pulled out from County Rd. A-29 into the path of the Christianson car and was struck in the rear. Forsythe was ticketed for reckless driving.

State Police also ticketed June Godfrey, 37, of Rte. 1, Escanaba, for failure to stop in the assured clear distance ahead after a minor accident on M-35 near County Rd. 420. Officers said her car struck the rear of a car driven by Muriel Bruntjens, 44, Rte. 1, Gladstone, which was stopped waiting for traffic to clear before making a left turn.

Wee Small Voice

Tom Straebel told the kickoff breakfast meeting at Marco's for the Delta United Services 1968 fund campaign that a good community needs a fund agency. Delta County's is Delta United Services. Its campaign starts Monday and lasts two weeks.

Its campaign chairman for the third year is Bob Barron of the Mead Corp. He's a tiger in anybody's tank and he's certainly got a tiger-sized problem trying to raise up $65,000 from persons in Delta County to support 11 agencies which serve everyone in the county by helping our youth, our afflicted, our servicemen and others.

DUS has never reached its goal. It hopes to do it this year, but even if it doesn't it is a better effort than 11 individual campaigns by the 11 agencies. And the process spares our citizens an unending pestering to contribute to worthy causes.

Any effort to finance charities on a city-county basis is a special problem because the urban and rural interests differ seriously.

It comes down to the hard fact that no matter how well the able and devoted people who head our charity efforts organize the fund campaigns, they never can succeed unless the people who are to be benefited want to give.

We will really "have it made" when a person skipped by the campaign complains that he hasn't been solicited. It's asking pretty much of humans in a time of high taxes and good advertising and we may never see it.

But unless there's a civic conscience in Delta County that's active in all the communities and all the townships, DUS simply can't collect enough money to finance all the good things that are wrapped up in the DUS bundle.

The "muscle" of the campaign is the industrial solicitation. Our workers and managements of our industries do more for the campaign, even proportionately than any other of the 7 divisions. This is a great compliment to labor and to management. Somewhat regretfully we note that in some other areas of greater income and more education there is less proportionate participation.

There is not a call to conscience in the whole year that should have a stronger claim on the Delta County community than this one. This is the call for our money that helps our children to wholesome concepts of public life. That provides a health camp for children with physical infirmities. That supplies lifesaving blood transfusions with no charge for the blood given by volunteers. That helps our men in the service. That helps the retarded and disturbed. That helps the needy and the others with problems that can only be solved by the community, not by individuals.

If we're not going to do these things we're going to have a poor community. If many people hang back and don't give we're going to have a poor community even though the services are provided by the over-giving by others.

An Era Of Liberty

By BRUCE BISSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — An enlarging number of Americans seem bent on defining American democratic freedoms to allow them greater and greater license in their personal and public lives.

Increasingly, freedom is seen by some as, above all, an immunity—in the extreme view, from the law and the moral code themselves; in the less extreme, from criticism, from any kind of gradation, from all social penalty.

To the extent that political radicals of the right and left, with some support from more moderate types, are attacking the established framework of U. S. society as an inhibitor to freedom, they seem to give the sanction of a "high cause" to the libertarian bent of many average Americans.

But the latter probably do not need that sanction. On their own, by their own route, they have come to the notion that it is virtually undemocratic to note differences between one individual and another in matters of achievement or potential; to call attention to mistakes; to fix blame; or to make too much of many kinds of wrongdoing.

In all this there is a wicked irony. In the name of allowing individuality its freest rein, the growing army of libertarians would bar society from making some crucial individual distinction among people.

Grades and tests in school are increasingly frowned upon. Legitimate arrests for offenses against the law are resented as unwarranted invasions of personal rights. Minor wrongdoing is widely acceptable. Law enforcers, engulfed by rising serious crime, seem to underscore the tolerance by leaving many minor transgressions unprobed and unpunished.

The libertarians want no harsh words, no penalties, no standards to be measured by. Democracy, thus rationalized, means being left alone, to do as one wishes.

Those social analysts who are not caught up in these loose notions brand them as painfully immature. The bent is all for privilege and pleasure, with no balancing burden of responsibility.

One practiced observer, author Barbara W. Tuchman, sees a great failure of confidence among Americans as a key cause. In an article in June, she recalled:

"As a result we tend to shy away from all judgments. We hesitate to label anything wrong, and we therefore hesitate to require the individual to bear moral responsibility for his acts."

"To adopt the position that we must not condemn but only understand may be very Christian in intent, but in reality it is an escape from the necessity of exercising judgment."

What is required is courage—just a little, not very much—the courage to be independent and stand up for the standard of values one believes in.

"If the educated man is not willing to express standards, if HE cannot show that he has them and applies them, what then is education for?"

Should it be correct that immaturity and lack of confidence underlie the mounting libertarian strain among us, then at the very least we shall have to face this reality—and cease trying to invest these tendencies with high nobility.

The blunt fact is that we cannot function as a society or as individuals without a "system," an encompassing set of standards, a capacity and a willingness to make judgments about people and their problems.

Flaws and roadblocks in the system deserve to be attacked. But freedom cannot exist without the shelter of a durable framework. A discerning radical, Harvard sociologist Martin Peretz, sees that. Those who want to short-circuit the system, he says, simply lack the proper patience and stamina and drive to change society for the better by truly democratic means.

BUILDING

A recent article on the Biddle House at St. Ignace reminded me of an experience I encountered a couple years ago visiting Mackinac Island's restored Biddle House.

The home was a gem to visit and I enjoyed seeing the rooms as they must have been in its time. My visit's wonderful impression soon was shattered, however.

An attendant in long, period costume was at a doorway and apparently also was guarding a long, shiny table, one much too large for the room it was in. As families went by she would scold those who placed articles on it, as they looked at literature they had picked up in the building.

When I asked her why some rope was not placed in front of the table to keep people away, she said some statewide group of women was in charge of the building and nothing could be done without their approval. When I asked her where the table came from, she said the English had given it.

It seemed the War of 1812 hadn't ended, especially if you have a last name like Mac-

VISTA

Your Wednesday, Sept. 20, edition carried an article on Page 6 headlined "Vista Workers In Nahma Help Whole Community."

Anyone reading this article would certainly get the impression that we were all "underprivileged" people living here and that our senior citizens were ignorant and in need of tutoring.

We do not have one underprivileged family living in Nahma proper. Everyone living here, including the senior citizens, own their own homes. These homes are well-turmed and spotlessly clean. I know, I have been in all of them.

We are very proud of our town and the people in it.

"Underprivileged" The employed in our town earn far above the so-called poverty level. Others are retired. We have no unemployed.

Almost daily we are asked, "WHAT ARE VISTA WORKERS DOING IN NAHMA?" We, too, wonder.

Finding The Way Acceptance

By RALPH W. LOEW, D.D.

What's an acceptable way of life? The ancient prophet Isaiah said that, among other things, he had been sent to "proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." That meant justice for mankind, compassion for the suffering, liberty for the imprisoned and a new sense of godliness. This was to be proclaimed.

Our problem is that so much that we know to be wrong is still accepted. It isn't that we believe the situation to be right. We can't justify slums, lack of education on the highways, our own personal problems of a bad temper or slovenliness. It's just that we decide that we can't do anything about these things and so, for us, they become acceptable.

Take the ugly issue of war. These have been weeks which have surrounded us with the possibility of increasing horror. We are all willing to say that war is wrong. Yet we live in a time of war psychosis when we accept war.

Rep. L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., asks for all-out war and too many of us applaud. To make war acceptable is to insist that the language of violence and military power are the only forms of language that can be understood. If you believe that, then diplomatic efforts such as United Nations, as well as every other form of international discussion, are cynical shams. Even those who wage war ought to insist that war is wrong. This isn't a matter of being a "hawk" or a "dove." It's just recognizing tragedy. War is the tragedy of a failure; it ought not to be baptized as the "acceptable year of the Lord."

Then there is the problem of pollution. I'm astonished at the numbers of good citizens who assume that pollution is the natural by-product of civilization and therefore there's nothing that can be done about it. It is only because some dedicated heroes of the past decided to do something about slavery or child labor or polio or any number of such disasters that men were jolted from the mind-set of accepting the tragedy.

Marcel Quist, the interesting French priest who jogs our consciences, writes, "Would you dare to say: 'I didn't beat my wife this week; I didn't put poison in her food; therefore I love her'?" Then don't say, "I did nothing to hurt my neighbor this week; therefore I love him. I've fulfilled the law."

"The Lord has commanded us not only not to do evil to our neighbor (the pagans do as much) but to love our neighbors as ourselves. If you are more gifted, if you are more resourceful or virtuous than your neighbor, then you ought to help him in every possible way to become capable of helping himself. There is no end to loving others."

We may have "to put up" with all too many tragedies in these days. But to accept them is intolerable.

Ann Landers Staying Up Nights, Mom, Helps No One

Dear Ann Landers: My husband has been offered an excellent promotion but it means we must leave this city where we both have family. Both sets of grandparents adore our children. When my parents heard of the promotion they were happy for him and offered their congratulations.

My husband's parents, however, have been trying desperately to get him to pass up the opportunity because "money isn't everything." They have pointed out that they will not live forever (an astute observation), and that we would be unacceptably selfish to move from this city and deprive them of the joy of seeing their grandchildren grow up.

I am certain others must have written to you about this problem. What did you tell them? — BEWILDERED

Dear B: I told them money isn't everything. There are other things that should be considered — independence, personal integrity, making sacrifices (such as leaving one's parents) in order to advance professionally or in business.

Children owe their parents respect, consideration and kindness. But they do not owe them their physical presence after they have reached adulthood. Call the van, and good luck to you.

Dear Ann Landers: Last Fall we sent our pretty 18-year-old daughter off to college. We are not well-fixed financially and it was a sacrifice to send her with the proper wardrobe.

By December we learned that she was doing everything besides studying, and I do mean everything. When she came home for Christmas vacation she told me she thought she was pregnant. Fortunately, she was not, but it was a horrible two weeks for both of us.

Because she did not flunk out she felt she should be allowed to return to college. So, after much haranguing, her father and I agreed. How can I be sure she has learned her lesson and will conduct herself in a respectable manner? I am awake nights worrying — MOTHER.

Dear Mother: You might as well get some sleep, because staying up nights will not help you OR her. By the time a girl goes off to college her pattern of behavior is set. You can do nothing now except hope to have the scare taught her something.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a 19-year-old guy with an unusual problem. Two years ago I started to grow to love a wonderful girl. We are hoping, God willing, to be married in two or three years. The problem is that she is always sending me small gifts.

I am putting myself through college and I can't afford to buy her anything. It makes me feel like less of a man to be on the receiving end most of the time.

When, out of need, I buy myself a new shirt I feel guilty. I think perhaps I should have spent the money on her. I have tried to explain, but she says she gets pleasure out of buying me things and I should not deprive her of it.

How can I get her to see that all I need is her love? — THE RECEIVER

Dear Receiver: The girl is obviously a generous sort, and since her gifts are gifts of love and not designed to obligate you, accept them graciously. In return, write her a poem or a warm letter of thanks. Or send her a trinket which costs a dime but has special significance. An imaginative gift can be far more impressive than an expensive one.

Give in or lose him... when a guy gives you this line, look out! For tips on how to handle the super sex salesman, check Ann Landers. Read her booklet, "Necking And Petting — What Are The Limits?" Send your request to Ann Landers in care of your newspaper, enclosing 50c in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

WOODCOCK SEEMED to stick close to water edges on opening weekend of early season, as if to avoid unseasonably hot weather, and water dogs were appropriate helpers for hunters. Bradley Cory, Escanaba, holds woodcock fetched by Angus, his Labrador retriever.

Peninsula Woodcock Hunt Fills Gamebag With Nuts

By KENNETH S. LOWE

Hunting timberdoodles on the first day of Michigan's first early woodcock season was like suffering a nightmare at high noon.

When the woodcock season opened this year on Sept. 15—

two full weeks before the traditional Oct. 1 opener—the thermometer soared to the mid-80s by noon and the steaming heat took the starch out of man and dog alike.

Even worse than the heat were the mosquitoes. They rose from the creek bottom in savage throngs, and the hunters became the hunted. Those of us who ventured into the lowlands to kill woodcock found ourselves killing skeeters instead.

And compounding an already bad situation was the lush summer vegetation. The undergrowth was so thick that it kept the dogs out of sight so that we couldn't tell if they were on point. Overhead, the foliage was so heavy that it masked the flight of most of the woodcock we succeeded in flushing.

Mankato Woman Gets 30 Days On Check Count

Karin Hickstein, 26, of Mankato, Minn., was sentenced to 30 days in the Delta County Jail and ordered to make restitution of $127.53 to an Escanaba business Friday after she pleaded guilty to a check fraud charge before Justice Edward Goldsworthy of Gladstone.

Her companion, Carl McGee, 40, of Minneapolis, pleaded not guilty and was held in jail when he failed to post $500 bond. Date for trial will be set later.

The couple was arrested in Sault Ste. Marie and was returned to Escanaba Thursday by Delta County Sheriff's officers. Mrs. Richard Post of the Canterbury Book Store in Escanaba complained to police that a check Karin Hickstein cashed was a forgery.

Bank Bandits Take $43,000

FLAT ROCK (AP)—Two bandits held up the Peoples Bank branch in the village of Waltz, about five miles southwest of Flat Rock, and fled with some $43,000 Friday.

A bank spokesman said the two men, armed with pistols, ordered one teller and three customers to lie on the floor and emptied the cash drawers in the teller area.

They left in a stolen car, which was discovered abandoned about a mile from the bank, the spokesman said.

Detroit Schools Facing Aid Loss

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit schools faced a possible loss of more than $6.4 million in state school aid today as nearly 22,000 pupils were missing Friday.

Supt. Norman Drachler reported that only 278,000 of the expected 300,000 youngsters have registered for classes. If the missing pupils are not registered by next Friday, the day the state determines the amount of aid for the district, Detroit will lose $300 per missing youngster.

"We need to obtain every single dollar that we are entitled to in order to fulfill our program for the coming year," Drachler said.

"We are launching a student round-up campaign which we hope will bring every eligible boy and girl from kindergarten through high school into our Detroit schools."

Meanwhile, officials in the North Dearborn Heights district, began recruiting replacements for 79 teachers who resigned rather than go back to work under court order without a contract.

The schools operated Thursday and Friday on half-day sessions with 25 substitutes and 37 teachers who did not resign.

The Michigan Federation of Teachers has called for an investigation of conditions in the district.

Tom Hill, MFT director of organization, charged that the at-work teachers were "scabbing on their colleagues" and that the school administration was "not only trying to break the union but trying to punish the teachers for bargaining."

Disputes continued in eight other Michigan areas. In the Crestwood district, in Dearborn Heights, teachers have resigned rather than comply with a back-to-work injunction.

Teachers were working under court orders in Bay City, Saginaw, Holland and Birmingham. Schools in Hamtramck, Highland Park and Menominee remained closed.

New Recreation Area Dedicated By First Lady

the vast beauty of its lakes, streams, and forests will now be available to over two million people who are at most within a day's drive and countless others who will be awed by the natural wilderness.

Lady Bird hailed the purchase symbolic of a nation which cares enough of outdoor heritage to save some of it for its children and its children's children. She urged the youth of today to pause and consider how they can pass on their heritage as the present generation has done.

She added that her visit to Sylvania would linger in her heart for many years and hoped more and more people would use it and have the foresight to provide the same opportunities of outdoor relaxation and recreation for those who follow.

Quotes Byron

The first lady described Sylvania's lakes, streams and forests as one of nature's own cathedrals and quoted 19th century English poet, Lord Byron, adding that the poet "Surely had such a place as this in mind" when he wrote:

"There is a pleasure in the pathless wood,

"There is a rapture on the lonely shore,

"There is a society where no one intrudes by the deep sea,

"And music in its roar;

"I love not man less, but nature more."

The scenic setting of the dedication in the northwest portion of the tract was poetically beautiful with the vivid fall colors and the clear blue waters of the lake providing the incomparable autumn colorama of Michigan's Upper Peninsula as the background for Mrs. Johnson's well-chosen remarks.

Mrs. Johnson praised Michigan's U. S. Senator Philip A. Hart, who was present, for his efforts in securing the tract for national park purposes.

Among the escorts for the First Lady was Philip Ruppe, the U. P. representative in Congress, who officially represented Gov. George Romney, who was unable to attend.

Job Corps Praised

Mrs. Johnson also praised the staff and members of the Ojibwa Job Corps Center, located nearby, for the work they have contributed in the development of the area. Job Corps members presented the First Lady with a woods worker's protective hat as a memento of her trip, which she donned to the cheer of the crowd.

Among the many gifts presented her, the First Lady was especially captivated by a hand-made birch bark canoe constructed by a Minnesota man.

After returning to Ironwood and a brief tour there, Mrs. Johnson's party left by plane for Madison, Wis., at 3 p. m., on the next leg of her tour.

Last night, she was an overnight guest of Wisconsin Gov. and Mrs. Warren P. Knowles.

Highway Builders Abide By Rules

LANSING (AP)—A group of highway contractors has withdrawn objections to a set of rules proposed for the review of state highway contracts by the attorney general and the state administrative board.

John Dodge Jr., Detroit attorney for the group, said they later decided the objections were not significant enough to warrant the special meeting with the board.

Girl Scout Camp Placed For Sale

Timbertrail Girl Scout Camp in Alger County, which has served Upper Peninsula girls for a quarter of a century, will be sold.

The announcement was made by the Timbertrail Association Board of Directors, whose president is Mrs. Max Reynolds Jr., Marquette.

Owner and operator of the camp, the Timbertrail Association has three member units: Timberlane (Marquette County) Council, Munising and Manistique.

Board spokesmen said financial problems plaguing the camp and continually declining attendance were among factors which led to the decision to sell.

Profits from the camp will be divided on the basis of ownership.

Originally owned by a Bay de Noc Lumber Co. and sold to the Chicago Girl Scout Council, Timbertrail was rented by Upper Peninsula Girls Scouts in 1942 and 1943 and was purchased by its present owners in 1944.

Two Youngsters Drown At Elberta

ELBERTA (AP)—The bodies of two youngsters reported missing Thursday were recovered Friday from the Betsie River at the M 22 bridge separating Elberta from Frankfort in West Michigan.

Benzie County Sheriff Thomas Kenney said the two boys, Donald D. Thies, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Thies, and Jack D. Baughman, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baughman both of Elberta, had left their homes Thursday afternoon to visit neighbors. When they failed to show up or return home, the sheriff's department was notified, Kenney said.

He said eye glasses and a watch belonging to the Baughman youth were found on the bridge leading authorities to speculate that the Thies boy may have fallen into the river and his companion drowned while trying to save him.

The bodies were recovered about 50 feet down stream from the bridge.

North American Aviation Merges With Rockwell

LOS ANGELES (AP)—North American Aviation Inc. and Rockwell-Standard Corp. have merged, creating one of the two largest industrial companies in California.

The merger climaxed North American's long struggle to enter commercial markets.

A U. S. Justice Department challenge to the merger was resolved last week, with the sale of Rockwell's executive jet business to Israel Aircraft Industries Ltd., Tel Aviv.

North American Rockwell Corp.—the new company—has headquarters in El Segundo. The company's only competitor for title of California's largest is Standard Oil Co. of California.

Warn Fishermen Hook And Line Only For Cohos

LANSING (AP)—Over-enthusiastic fishermen are grabbing prized Coho salmon illegally with nets, gaffs, spears and even their bare hands, reports the State Conservation Department.

The salmon being taken are trapped in substantial number between sandbars off the mouth of the Platte River in Lake Michigan.

"There is only one legal way to catch salmon in Michigan," warned Owen Bennett, law enforcement chief for the department's Lower Peninsula division. "That is with hook and line."

Conservation officers will arrest those attempting to take the salmon any other way, he warned.

The Coho, ranging up to 20 pounds, schooled off the mouth of the Platte River in Benzie County earlier this month, waiting to make their run upstream to spawn.

Fish Trapped

Earlier this week, high winds and waves washed many over sandbars. When the winds subsided, the water became too shallow for them to swim out. They will remain trapped until the next strong west wind enables them to work free.

The department said there have been no similar problems at the two other streams where Coho are congregating to spawn, the Manistee River at Manistee and the Big Huron in the Upper Peninsula.

Meanwhile, the department has announced selection of 11 new streams that may be stocked with adult Coho salmon this fall.

Stocking Priority

Wayne Tody, head of the department's fish division, said there is no way of knowing, however, if there will be enough surplus Coho to stock all the streams selected.

Top priority will be given to the rivers that already have Coho salmon.

The department first will take eggs from adult salmon. It expects to collect some five million salmon eggs from about 3,000 adult Cohos.

Several thousand mature salmon also will be allowed to pass beyond the spawn-collecting stations in hopes of establishing upstream spawning populations.

Three U. P. Streams
Three streams in the Upper Peninsula and eight in the northern Lower Peninsula have been selected as the best bets for Coho introduction.

The Upper Peninsula streams—Silver River, upstream from Silver Falls, Baraga County; Falls River, Baraga County; and Yellow Dog Falls, Marquette County.

The northern Lower Peninsula streams—Boardman River between Beithner Rd. and the mouth of East Creek and East Creek itself, Grand Traverse County; Boyne River and its tributaries upstream from Pouchouse, Charlevoix County; Bear River above barriers in Petoskey, Emmet County; Mitchell Creek and its tributaries, Grand Traverse County; Ocqueoc River, Presque Isle County; Au Gres River, Arenac County, and Pine River, Manistee County.

NEW YORK (AP)—Media-tors reported today narrowing the points of difference in a contract dispute that threatened to prolong the New York City teachers' walkout into a third week.

The dispute led Albert Shanker, president of the AFL-CIO United Federation of Teachers, to declare Friday that teachers would continue their strike against the 1.1-million-pupil public school system instead of returning as expected on Monday.

Vincent D. McDonnell, chairman of the State Mediation Board, said early today after a seven-hour secret session with both sides that the points of disagreement had been reduced from 24 to 3.

McDonnell said Shanker would confer with other union officials about the 3 remaining points and then contact the negotiators for the board of education before noon today and try to reach final agreement.

Shanker said Friday, when the dispute erupted, "It's too late to put together a written agreement in time for the teachers to return to school on Monday."

He charged the Board of Education was trying to renege on certain terms of the tentative $135.4 million verbal agreement which the parties reached last Wednesday at Gracie Mansion after a 6-hour bargaining session.

But Schools Supt. Dr. Bernard E. Donovan asserted the union's charge was a "smokescreen" and said its negotiators "were deliberately disdainful of the need to get schools operating normally."

Citgo Purchases Theisen-Clemens

Cities Service Oil Co., (Citgo) of Tulsa, Okla., contracted to acquire assets of Theisen-Clemens Co. of St. Joseph, Mich., one of its branded distributors, for a reported $4.1 million.

Jointly making the announcement were Robert G. Reed III, vice president and general manager of marketing for Cities Service, and G. Clemens Theisen, president and chairman of the board of Theisen-Clemens Co.

Cities Service is a subsidiary of Cities Service Co., New York. Theisen-Clemens was founded in 1901 and associated with Cities Service Oil Co. in 1948. Since then the two firms have worked together closely.

Under terms of the agreement, effective Oct. 1, Theisen-Clemens management will continue to operate the firm's two terminals, 15 tank stations and 37 service stations. Patrick J. McMullen, St. Joseph, vice president and general sales manager for Theisen-Clemens will manage the operations for Citgo. G. Clemens Theisen will remain in the capacity of a consultant.

Keep Identification
"We recognize and respect the tradition of this veteran petroleum distributor," Reed said, "and are committed to continue its tradition of excellent service to Michigan customers."

Properties and service stations will continue to bear joint Citgo-Theisen-Clemens identification. The Theisen-Clemens headquarters in St. Joseph will be maintained, although there will be gradual implementation of administrative changes to enable integration with Citgo's accounting system.

The Theisen-Clemens Co. was founded in 1901 by John J. Theisen, father of the current president and board chairman. Initially selling kerosene and $4 stoves on the streets of St. Joseph, John J. Theisen began handling gasoline two years later.

In the same year, 1903, his sister's husband, Robert Sieber, invested in the business and it became the Sieber Oil Co., with Theisen as manager. Then, in 1921, the Sieber and Coloma oil companies were united to form what is now the Theisen-Clemens Co.

Had More Terminals
Highlights in the company's history include the building of a Great Lakes terminal in 1933, during the blackest days of the depression. At one time or another the firm has owned terminals at Detroit, Bay City, Charlevoix, and Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. The present two terminals are at St. Joseph and Kipling, both on Lake Michigan.

Devoting his later years to civic work as well as his business ventures, John J. Theisen, died in 1945 at 63. G. Clemens Theisen, his oldest son, took over the reins in 1945 and launched an expansion program which resulted in a tripling of sales in the next decade.

Owned 30 Years
The Kipling terminal, managed by Grant Hess, has been owned by Theisen Clemens for 30 years. It also leases and operates the Gulf Oil terminal at Gladstone.

Theisen-Clemens' Kipling terminal tank farm has a capacity of 25 million gallons of storage for gasoline and fuel oils. Its owns 6 Class A gasoline stations in this area, three in Escanaba, one in Rapid River, one in Gladstone and one in Rock and supplies 14 smaller gas stations in the Delta area.

The company expanded its local operation 8 years ago by purchase of the Hansen & Jensen Oil Co. of Escanaba and its gasoline stations. One of the largest independent marketers of gasoline in the nation Theisen-Clemens has never been a refiner of petroleum products.

Colorado Sleeping Beauty Still In Coma

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Sharie Ann Duncan, the sleeping beauty of Colorado, has been in a coma for more than a year now, and there is little chance she will ever wake up, according to her mother.

It was Sept. 17, 1966, when Sharie, a 17-year-old high school senior, was thrown from her car, 150 feet down an embankment when it struck a guard rail as she started to leave the freeway. She was severely injured.

Sharie's mother theorized that she was tired and fell asleep at the wheel. Sharie had been registered for her sophomore year at the university, had worked that morning and baked a birthday cake for a 7-year-old neighbor girl that afternoon.

Since then, despite two brain operations and the most intensive therapy medical experts could muster, Sharie has remained in a deep, semicomatose state.

"We never like to give up hope, but at this point it's beyond our hands," said a spokesman at Spaulding House, a gleaming new convalescent center operated under auspices of the Episcopal Diocese of Colorado.

Still Hopes
Nevertheless, Mrs. Joan Manfredi, Sharie's mother, said "I've never lost faith that she'll get better. I think Sharie has come a long, long way already."

Before the accident, according to those who knew her, Sharie was a happily vivacious 22-year-old who crammed 25 hours of living into every day. "I thought you were the prettiest and the friendliest and the nicest girl I knew," wrote a former teacher, now retired, from Custer, S.D., where she lived until moving to Denver while still in high school.

"Everyone you talk to thinks she was the greatest girl in the world," said an official at Spaulding House.

Servicemen by the hundreds became her pen pals two years ago after seeing her photograph as "Miss Blood-n," during a nationally-recognized university campaign for blood donations for Vietnam war casualties.

Answers Letters
She found time, between her job with a plastic firm, philosophy studies at the university's Denver extension center, and visits to other casualties at the Army's Fitzsimons Hospital here, to answer each letter.

The letters still pour in, many from the Vietnam battle zone, but now they are answered by her mother.

The cause of the accident never has been fully explained.

Get-Acquainted Tea Held At Lemmer Thursday

Amidst a setting of autumn flowers, the staff of the John Lemmer School was feted at a get-acquainted tea Thursday in the multi-purpose room of the school.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. John Anthony, the room mother representatives of the 18 classes prepared a table of canapés and tea cakes, accented with a sparkling punch bowl.

The tea table was centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums and wheat spikes combined with fruit.

Presiding at the tea service were Mrs. Arthur Anderson, PTA chairman, Mrs. John Pearson and Mrs. James Jacobs, vice-chairmen and Mrs. Walter Flath, treasurer. Mrs. George Eastin served punch.

In charge of invitations were Mrs. Roland Berry and Mrs. Floyd Cassidy. Mrs. Richard Nelson was in charge of food preparation and Mrs. William Stenbol supervised the table arrangements.

The hostess committee consisted of the Mesdames, William Servant, Roman Gill, William Baker, Ron Pertile, Frederick Gravelle and Gene Horn.

Members of the serving committee headed by Mrs. Ernest Kleinman, included Mrs. Clarence Londo, Mrs. T. Dale Flynn and Mrs. Grant Peterson.

A pleasant background of orchestral music added to the congeniality of the afternoon.

WW I Veterans, Auxiliary Meet On Thursday

Visitors from far and near attended the meeting of WWI Veterans Barracks 1128 and Auxiliary, Thursday at the VFW Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Greenleaf of Iron Mountain, commander and auxiliary president of District 1 (who succeeded Mr. and Mrs. William Garbetti) made their first official visit.

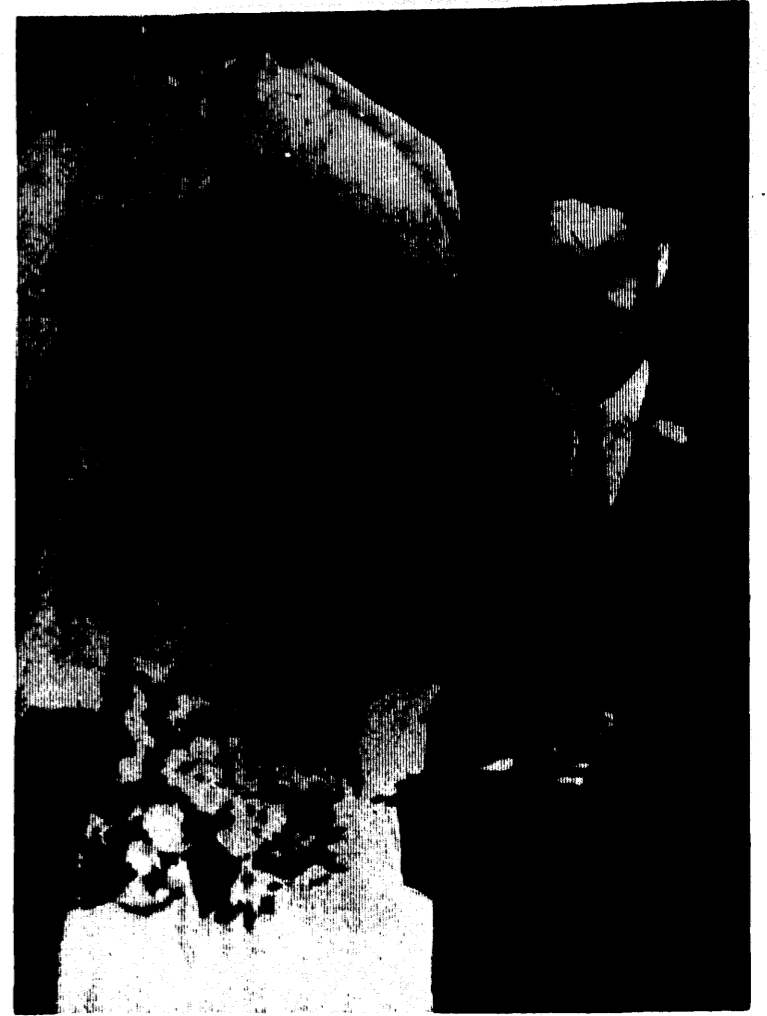

They were accompanied by Harry Williams, the District sergeant-at-arms and Mrs. Williams, the district auxiliary secretary.

Former Gladstone resident and members Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eldridge of Pompano Beach, Fla. visited old friends.

The district meeting when Department officers are on tour will be held Oct. 5 in Iron Mountain. All members are urged to attend. A pot luck room meal will be served. A dish to pass should be brought by members.

Reservations can be made with Commander Alfred Holland of Barracks 1128 or Auxiliary President, Mrs. Romeo (Doris) Martin.

Al Krug Speaks At Lions Club

Al Krug, of Iron Mountain, manager of the Wisconsin-Michigan Power Company, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Gladstone Lions Club held at the Yacht Club Thursday evening. Bob Belongie, former Gladstone resident who is now employed by Wisconsin - Michigan Power Co., accompanied Mr. Krug.

Electric heating was the topic of Mr. Krug's talk. He told the group the demand for electric heating in homes and other buildings has occurred since World War II and the amount of electricity used doubled from 1945 to 1955 and doubled again from 1955 to 1965. He said experts predict the amount consumed in the next ten years would be double.

Wisconsin - Michigan Power Co. has 15 hydroelectric plants in the Upper Peninsula and together they produce 80 million watts of electricity according to Mr. Krug.

He said that electric heating is economical and as feasible as any other heating method. He said it could be installed in almost any home, new or old, and that maintenance is practically nil.

Mr. Krug described the installation of electric heating in the new High School in Kimberly, Wis. and distributed booklets illustrating the installation.

Tony Belongie was program chairman for the evening and Harold Anderson attended the meeting as a guest of Ellis Movalson.

With RAY CRANDALL

This seems to be a bad year for football injuries in Upper Peninsula prep ranks. . . . Escanaba, Gladstone and Holy Name have been hit by the injury jinx in the early part of the campaign. . . . A batch of other injuries were uncovered throughout the Peninsula this week.

The Ironwood Red Devils lost quarterback Ray Bastman with a broken collarbone, fullback Joe Johnson with a shoulder separation and tackle Tom Potinsky with a broken bone in his hand. . . . So fullback Mac Finlayson, a 175 pound junior, has been sidelined with a broken hand. . . . Don Corullo, star halfback at Bessemer, has been lost for the season with a broken shoulder. . . . In his first three games he had scored 38 points while gaining 260 yards rushing and 90 as a pass catcher. . . . Gary Schick, 200 pound Menominee line-man who has been a regular for two years, is nursing a shoulder injury.

Bev Farrell, Gladstone Golf Club women's champion, had no trouble switching sports this fall. . . . In her first night of Mixed Doubles League bowling she crashed a 543 series. . . . Lenore Palmgren came up with a big 229 singleton.

Rick Salani, Hancock High School quarterback, has passed for four touchdowns and scored five on the ground in two games this season. . . . He's the son of Bob Salani, Hancock football coach. . . . The Bulldogs have not escaped the injury bugaboo this fall as defensive end Roger Rintala suffered a broken leg last week.

Wakefield has a 218 pound senior tackle and linebacker who is regarded as a sure bet for All-Upper Peninsula honors this fall. . . . Mike Smolich was credited with 26 unassisted tackles in the losing battle against Bessemer last week. . . . His coach, Duane Lane, stated: "Smolich was magnificent. It is almost unheard of to get 26 solo tackles in a game and he played himself into a state of near exhaustion by the final minutes."

Today's football game between Holy Name and Lake Linden will mark the first time the schools have competed in athletics. . . . Lake Linden dropped football in 1963 after managing to register only 12 victories in the previous 10 years. . . . After a one year layoff, the Whiz Kids returned to the gridiron sport and won 12 of 19 games in the following three seasons. . . . They are currently coached by Russ Laurin.

Rudy Steiner, Iron Mountain's 6 foot 1 inch, 210 pound quarterback, is the top scorer in the Menominee Range Conference with 15 points to date. . . . He won the conference scoring title last season, is again setting the pace in that department with 135 yards in two games.

Central Notches Second Victory

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — The only Youngstown score came on a safety in the second period. The pass from center State University Penguins 16-2 Friday night for their second straight victory.

The first two times they had the ball the Chippewas mounted touchdown drives. They went 66 yards in nine plays, quarterback Gene Gilin going over from the four on a keeper play for the score.

The second touchdown was on a 66-yard drive in eight plays capped by Craig Tefft's 21-yard scamper through the Youngstown secondary to paydirt.

The Youngstown defense stiffened, and Central Michigan did not score again until the final quarter, when Bruce Cameron booted a 37-yard field goal.

Sports In Brief

The Baltimore Colts have switched All-America end Bubba Smith of Michigan State to defensive tackle. Bubba is 6-8 and 290.

National Football League teams scheduled a record number of 51 exhibition games this year, including 16 with American Football League clubs.

Purdue, with a 6-1 Big Ten record last year and runner-up to Michigan State, has an 89-man football roster.

Eskymos Blast Kingsford, 47-0

First Setback Stuns No. 2 Ranked Eleven

By RAY CRANDALL
(Press Sports Editor)

KINGSFORD — The Escanaba Eskymos slammed Kingsford out of the undefeated ranks with a blast heard throughout the Upper Peninsula here Friday night, 47-0. Ranked No. 2 in the Upper Peninsula in this week's sportswriters poll, Kingsford got a taste of the brand of ball that has now produced four successive Eskymo victories.

It was like Hurricane Beulah sweeping through a village of grass huts as the Eskymos dominated every phase of the game. The Flivvers were pounded into a 14-0 deficit before they knew what had hit them, and they never got back on their feet.

Subs See Action

The Eskymos ruled the ground in the Great Northern Conference contest, piling up 286 yards rushing. Coach Jerry Cengros gave all his gridders a chance to perform in the lopsided battle and 10 backs accounted for the yardage. Subs were running before halftime.

Escanaba's sterling defense made a shambles of the Kingsford attack. Flivver backs were thrown for a minus 20 yards on the ground and quarterback Terry Duval was able to complete only one aerial good for five yards. That left Kingsford 15 yards in the hole for the night.

Junior fullback Jim Olsen led Escanaba's scoring parade with three touchdowns in the finest performance of his two year varsity career. He ripped the middle of the Kingsford line to shreds behind a devastating blocking exhibition.

Great Defensive Game Other Eskymos getting into the touchdown act were Jerry Brazeau, Gregg Johnson, Dan Mylander and defensive stand-out Butch LaBay. Gregg Olson booted four extra points and Mylander ran for one.

Defensively the Eskymos were at their vicious best. John Mileski, 172 pounds of guts and determination, almost wrecked Kingsford's offense himself. The rugged junior blocked a punt and recovered an enemy fumble in the first two minutes of the game. Steve Stropich and John Bennett also hopped on Kingsford fumbles and Jerry Brazeau and Ken Robitaille intercepted passes.

Vital VanDresse turned in his usual dedicated game on defense and received able support from Gregg Johnson, Jim Olsen, John Moberg and Brazeau in addition to the reserves who

Get Quick Lesson

Kingsford found out how tough the Esky defense was the first time it had the ball. The Flivvers dropped back to punt on the fourth play from scrimmage and Mileski stormed in to block the boot. LaBay plucked the ball up with one hand and stepped over the end zone. Gregg Olson's PAT made it 7-0.

Four plays later Kingsford's Ted Romagnoli was belted loose from the leather and Mileski recovered on the Kingsford 40. Olsen crashed over from the 10 yard line the first time he had a chance to carry the ball and Olson split the goal posts to make it 14-0.

Second quarter TDs were tallied by Olsen on a 1 yard dive, Brazeau on a four yard buck and Johnson on a 25 yard keeper with a picture block by Brazeau. It was 34-0 at halftime.

Mylander Joins Act

The Eskymos tacked on a touchdown in each of the third and fourth periods. Olson went over from the 12 for his third TD to make it 40-0 early in the second half.

Mylander, recovering from a pre-season ankle sprain, joined the Esky subs in the backfield and got two chances to carry the ball. He powered for five yards and a first down in the closing seconds of the game and on the final play bulled his way for eight yards to paydirt, then ran the PAT to make it 47-0.

Escanaba will return to action in a home stand against Marquette High of Milwaukee Saturday.

Resurging Lions Take On Browns In Sunday Clash

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit's resurging Lions, after a 17-17 tie with defending world champion Green Bay, seeks their first victory under the helm of new coach Joe Schmidt when they tackle Cleveland in a National Football League game Sunday.

The Browns, unlike the Packers, are the underdogs by from 4½ to 6 points. Milt Plum, after alternating with second-year man Karl Sweetan, appears to have the Lion quarterbacking job nailed down. He's set to start against Cleveland.

Plum, a pipesmoking, quiet tactician, said he's earning the No. 1 quarterbacking spot after last year's dismal 4-9-1 season. "It was something to fight for," he said.

"You just go out and do the best you can," he said. "You try not to let it enter your mind that you might not be No. 1."

White Detroit chalked up a morale booster in tying Green Bay, Plum connected on only 7 of 17 passes for 42 yards. Schmidt said, though, that the Lions intended to play a ball-control game, and succeeded.

The same plan holds for the Cleveland game, he said. Plum credited rookie Mel Farr, a running back, with bolstering the Detroit rushing game. "He's got great speed and balance," Plum said.

Farr, the Lions No. 1 draft choice played his college ball at UCLA, where he was a three-season standout.

"When you have a running game, it alleviates a lot of things," the quarterback said. "It controls the ball, uses up time. And if they set their defense to stop the running game, then you can pass."

He said Detroit's line also is stronger this year, helping open first quarter for Battle Creek Central and opened the floodgates. Paul English scored on runs of 13 and 39 yards and Finn started using substitutes. Monty Freeze came in and scored on runs of 45 and 39 yards.

Battle Creek Central was playing without its top halfback, Johnny Jones.

Saginaw Buena Vista unleashed Dean Tolliver for 91 yards and a touchdown. Bob Bishop ran 54 yards. Walt Zien-tek passed 50 yards to John Turner and Ralph Carter ran a punt back 51 yards for a touchdown. Buena Vista has yet to be scored upon.

Portland St. Patrick, tied for sixth in Class D, found a potent weapon in Perry Morris on in beating Pewamo-Westphalia 33-6. Morrison scored five touchdowns for the winners.

Jackson Parkside of Class A beat Grand Rapids South 35-7 for its 13th straight victory. Unranked Concord beat East Jackson 32-31 as Bruce Raymond gained 180 yards rushing and scored four touchdowns.

Royal Oak Dondoro, fifth-ranked in Class A, defeated Hazel Park 12-7. Highland Park scored first on a 57-yard run by Mike Ashlin. But Jerry Campbell of Dondoro threw two touchdown passes to make up the difference.

Sherwin Munn of Mount Clemens ran for 220-yards and scored four touchdowns as Mount Clemens whipped Birmingham Seaholm 34-30.

Miners Win Fourth In Row

Negaunee Running Attack Too Much For Manistique

MANISTIQUE — Negaunee's hit the button on 10 of 26 passes for 167 yards and Manistique's touchdown. Gary Sample latched onto five tosses for 116 yards, Phil Nelson grabbed three for 29 and Terry Popour and Larry Roberts snagged one each.

The Emeralds added 91 yards rushing with Roberts picking up 34 and Keith Aldrich 28.

After the teams battled to a scoreless tie in the first period, Negaunee dented the Manistique goal line early in the second with Prusi sneaking from the 1 and Ghiardi running the point to make it 7-0. That was the end of the scoring in the first half.

Manistique missed a golden opportunity to knot it early in the third period when Cowman and Sample hooked up for two aeriels covering 84 yards to reach the Negaunee 3. But a fumble wiped out the threat.

The next time the Emeralds got a chance they didn't miff it. Cowman pitched to Popour for a 10 yard scoring play and Roberts pounded over for the point to tie the Miners, 7-7.

Midway in the fourth frame the Miners reached paydirt for the second time, Ghiardi scoring from the 4 and Prusi passing to Bath for the point to make it 14-7.

Again the Emeralds battled back and drove to the Negaunee 8 yard line before losing the ball on downs in the fourth quarter.

Negaunee launched another long ground attack midway in the final period and Ghiardi capped it with two minutes to go by plunging over from the 2.

Coach Rick Larson's Manistique gridders will be back in action Friday night, hosting Gladstone in their homecoming game.

For example, he took 31 puts for the round while Bruce Crampton, Harold Henning and Jack Nicklaus, who shot 68, 69 and 70, respectively, all needed 30 puts.

Sharing the lead with Casper at 141, three strokes under par for 36 holes, were Australia's Crampton, South Africa's Henning, Tommy Jacobs, Rocky Thompson and club pros Bill Collins and Pat Schwab.

One stroke back at 142 were Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Art Wall Jr., Bert Weaver and Terry Wilcox with a half dozen others at 143 — Nicklaus, Julius Boros, Australia's Bruce Devlin, Johnny Pott, Steve Oppermann and Charles Coody.

Miami of Oxford, Ohio has two senior centers from Toledo on its football squad. They are double letter winner Paul Krasula, 221, and Marty Torgler, 202.

The NFL has Baltimore, 1-0, at Philadelphia, 1-0; New York, 1-0, at Dallas, 1-0; Chicago, 0-1, at Green Bay, 0-1; Cleveland, 0-1, at Detroit, 0-1; St. Louis, 0-1, at Pittsburgh, 1-0; Atlanta, 0-1, at San Francisco, 1-0, and Washington, 0-1, at New Orleans, 0-1.

The AFL offers Kansas City, 1-0, at Miami, 1-0; Boston, 0-3, at Buffalo, 1-1; New York, 0-1, at Denver, 1-2, and Houston, 1-1, at San Diego, 1-0.

Twins Trounce New York To Lead in Torrid Race

By The Associated Press
Remember the years when the New York Yankees slaughtered the opposition in September and ran away with the pennant?

The Yankees couldn't handle Minnesota Friday night and the Twins—they are the old Washington Senators, remember?—clouted New York 8-2 and grabbed sole possession of first place in the American League.

Cesar Tovar walloped two homers while Zoilo Versalles had a homer, a double and a single for the Twins.

Meanwhile, Mickey Lolich and Earl Wilson kept the Detroit Tigers in the race. Detroit swept two games from Washington and moved to within one-half game of second place Boston and one game of leading Minnesota Friday night.

In other AL games, Minnesota walloped the New York Yankees 8-2, Boston split a pair with Baltimore, the Orioles winning the first game 10-0 and the Red Sox the nightcap 10-3; Cleveland edged the Chicago White Sox 2-1 in 13 innings and Kansas City beat California 3-1. Thus, with only nine days remaining in the regular season, the Twins are on top, one-half game in front of Boston, with Detroit third and the White Sox two games off the pace in fourth place.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs beat Cincinnati 3-2 in 10 innings; Houston and New York split a pair, the Astros taking the first game 8-0 and the Mets winning the second 8-5 in 10 innings; the St. Louis Cardinals defeated Atlanta 5-4 in 12 innings; San Francisco topped Pittsburgh 1-0 and Los Angeles beat Philadelphia 7-1.

The Tigers' starting staff was reduced to three earlier this week when right-hander Denny McLain dislocated two toes in a freak accident. That left it up to Lolich, Wilson and Joe Sparrano. Detroit had the day off today and Sparrano, 15-9, is scheduled to oppose the Senators Sunday, with Wilson and Lolich, 12-13, facing the Yankees in New York on Monday and Tuesday nights.

Wednesday is another open date for the Tigers, who looked to be on their way out of the race after dropping two straight to the Senators earlier this week.

Catcher Bill Freehan was among the Tigers' batting stars Friday night. His bases-loaded single in the seventh inning of the second game broke a score-battered Mel Stottlemyre for 10 hits and seven runs in six innings and rode the seven-hit pitching of Jim Kaat to victory. The triumph was the sixth in a row for Kaat and lifted his record to 15-13. Both runs off him were unearned.

Wilson Feels Badly, Wins

WASHINGTON (AP)—Detroit's Earl Wilson said he was feeling badly when he became the first pitcher in the major leagues to win 22 games. It'll be hard to convince the Washington Senators.

"I didn't think I could get through warmup," Wilson said after the Tigers defeated the Senators Friday night 8-3. They followed with a 4-0 second game victory to close within one game of the American League lead.

"I only got two hours sleep last night," he said. Wilson, who has lost 10 this year, said he didn't know what was wrong with him.

"All I know is that I couldn't get to sleep before 5:30 a.m. and I had to get up at 7:30 to leave at 9:30 to come to Washington. I just didn't feel well."

Wilson, 14-6 lifetime against the Senators after defeating them three times this year, had a relatively easy time with Washington, scattering seven hits but giving up homers to Hank Allen and Paul Casanova. He threw the ball well in the early innings but let up when the Tigers, battling it out for the pennant, padded their lead.

"I was throwing the ball real well, getting my curve over and zinging the fastball," he said. "But you know how it is, after you get a few runs, just sort of throw the ball."

Wilson also was among the pace setters in Detroit's 13-hit first game attack, getting two singles and a run batted in.

"A bloop here, a bloop there, they all count," he said. "I was just trying to swing the bat."

Buchek's Homer Wins For Mets Under New Boss

By The Associated Press
Jerry Buchek's bat geyed and his glove tooketh away. But not his bat tooketh it right back again.

With the New York Mets trailing Houston by three runs in the eighth inning of the second game of a doubleheader with Houston Friday night, Buchek blasted a three-run homer, putting the Mets on top.

In the ninth, the Astros tied it up when Dave Adlesh singled to Buchek's glove at shortstop. Ray St. John scoring when the ball rolled into foul territory. So in the 10th, Buchek calmly hit another three-run homer. The Mets won 8-5 having lost the top tier 8-6.

Buchek later said he felt he should have had Adlesh's hit, but new manager Sam Rice Parker probably won't make a fuss about it. It was the fourth game this season Buchek has won for the Mets with a homer in the final inning. The six runs batted in tied a club record.

In other National League action Friday, St. Louis outlasted Atlanta 5-4 in 12 innings; Chicago edged Cincinnati 3-2 in 10 innings; San Francisco nudged Pittsburgh 1-0 and Los Angeles swept past Philadelphia 7-1.

Claim Color Bar Against McLouth

DETROIT (AP)—The State Civil Rights Commission has scheduled a hearing in Detroit next Wednesday on a charge of discrimination in employment against McLouth Steel Corp.

Clinton Richmond, a Negro, charged he was refused a vacant position as a mail room clerk because of his race or color. Richmond was laid off his job as a janitor when McLouth Steel contracted for services from an outside firm.

The Civil Rights Commission said he was offered a job as a mail room clerk if he scored 20 on a test or a position in the company bargaining unit if he scored at least 15. Richmond scored four on the test and was not offered either job, the commission said.

Flint Man Gets Life For Ohio Grocer Slaying

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Common Pleas Judge George B. Marshall sentenced Arlie Anderson to life in Ohio Penitentiary Friday for the slaying of James Capparucini in a local grocery store last March 11.

A jury of seven women and five men had found the 25-year-old Flint, Mich., man, formerly of Harrisburg, Ohio, guilty last Monday on charges of first-degree murder and armed robbery. The jury recommended mercy.

Card of Thanks

Carney

Because we cannot thank each of you personally, we take this way of thanking the many friends, neighbors and relatives who aided us by their acts and words of kindness during the recent death of our husband and brother, Clarence E. (Jack) Carney. We wish to thank Rev. Swan for his comforting service and Mrs. Piche and Mrs. Euer Peterson for the beautiful music they rendered. Also we wish to thank all those who donated and brought food to the house and the many friends who sent cards, letters, flowers and called to let us know they cared and were thinking of us. These acts of kindness will never be forgotten. Thank You.

Elvera Carney, George Carney, Manistique and Charles Carney, Ironwood

Tanguay

We wish to thank our friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindness and sympathy in our bereavement. We are grateful to Rev. Raymond to Hoefgen, Rev. C. J. Mark, Rev. Raymond Smith, Rev. Stephen Maynard, Rev. Lawrence Gaultier, those who sent spiritual bouquets, donated cars, ladies who served lunch, Knights of Columbus, Boyle Funeral Home. Your kindness will never be forgotten.

Attend the Church of Your Choice

—And where we'll stop, who can know?

We do have the best educational system in the world. But what will your child think and want and demand once we've educated him?

For in our system—unlike the Russian—we impart truth rather than ideas. We give our children the tools of thought, not the party line.

Does your child know that the center of all truth is God? Does he measure his aims by Christian standards of faith and morality? Has he learned where unbridled human passions of greed and power and selfishness can lead? Does he respect the religious faith and spiritual opportunities which motivated American Liberty?

Nobody can brainwash an American family. But it's up to each American family to choose every Sunday between the "around and around," and the center of truth—GOD.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
